Software | Developer

Erik Linder-Norén

+46 70 242 95 24   eriklindernoren@gmail.com   www.eriklindernoren.se

About me

I'm currently studying towards a masters degree at Linköping University, while having done part of my studies at world renowned university ETH Zürich. I've been working as a software developer for Ericsson since June 2014 but I enjoy exploring other languages through studies and personal endeavors. Please visit my online resume website for more about me, my employments and some of my side projects. Would love to hear from you!

www.eriklindernoren.se

Education

2012-13	Studies in Natural Science, University of Gävle
2013-15	Bachelor of Computer Science, Linköping University
2015-16	Bachelor of Computer Science, ETH Zürich
2016-18	Master of Science in Computer Science, Linköping University

Professional experience

Ericsson
2014 - present

Software Developer
Developed a command-line interface for handling communication and manipulation of Radio Base Stations using the NETCONF protocol. Helped develop the COM abstraction layer on top of the NETCONF common library at Ericsson.

Siba
2010-12

Salesman
I was the second best salesman of credit in the company for almost 6 months.

Onoff
2010

Salesman
Sold home electronics from all product departments. Got motivated by clearer focus on sales figures and sales margins.

Media Markt
2009-10

Salesman
Got education in sales. In charge of building gaming computers. Sold computers and hifi.

Skills

Proficiency indicated by size

Java

C++

Python

HTML / CSS

JS

Swift

C